

Association of Corporate Governance
Professionals of Nigeria (ACGPN)

2026

TRAINING PROGRAMS

God's Legacy Plaza
345 Odusami Street, off Wempco,
Ogba, Lagos.

+2349027274796

info@acgpnigeria.com

www.acgpnigeria.com

ACGPN 2026 Training Calendar – Detailed Course Synopses & Outlines

1. The Business of AI: Strategies for Leaders

Date: 19–20 Jan 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

2. Leadership and Structures of Corporate Governance

Date: 26–27 Jan 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

3. The Result Oriented Board and the Role of Chairman

Date: 2–3 Feb 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications

Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

4. Corporate Governance for Board Members & Directors

Date: 9–10 Feb 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

5. Regulatory, Legal and Compliance Masterclass

Date: 16–17 Feb 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

6. Advanced Enterprise Risk Management (ERM)

Date: 23–24 Feb 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

7. Risk Management, Control & Compliance (Corporate Governance Ecosystem)

Date: 2–3 Mar 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

8. Operational Risk Management & Mitigation

Date: 9–10 Mar 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

9. Contract Risk Management & Compliance

Date: 16–17 Mar 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

10. Corporate Governance Master Class for HR Professionals

Date: 23–24 Mar 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

11. Contract, Project Risk Management & Compliance

Date: 30–31 Mar 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

12. Governance, Risk & Compliance (GRC)

Date: 6–7 Apr 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

13. Leading Organization through Innovation in VUCA Environment

Date: 13–14 Apr 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

14. Public Sector Governance Best Practice

Date: 20–21 Apr 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications

Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

15. Strategic Investment Management & Governance

Date: 27–28 Apr 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

16. Project Risk Governance & Compliance

Date: 4–5 May 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

17. Operational Risk Management & Mitigation

Date: 11–12 May 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

18. Understanding Governance Arms of Risk Management

Date: 18–19 May 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

19. Masterclass in Corporate Affairs and Governance

Date: 25–26 May 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

20. Result-Based Strategy Governance for Board

Date: 1–2 Jun 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

21. Risk Management, Control & Compliance (Corporate Governance)

Date: 8–9 Jun 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

22. Statutory, Legal and Compliance Requirements for Organizations

Date: 15–16 Jun 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

23. Corporate Governance: Innovation Ecosystem

Date: 22–23 Jun 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

24. Digital Transformation for Boards

Date: 29–30 Jun 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

25. Governance Excellence Program: Expertise and Communication

Date: 6–7 Jul 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications

Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

26. Regulations and Control in Corporate Governance

Date: 13–14 Jul 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

27. Corporate Governance & Risk Management for Public Sector

Date: 20–21 Jul 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

28. Project Risk Governance & Compliance

Date: 27–28 Jul 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

29. Risk Management: Internal Control & Fraud Prevention

Date: 3–4 Aug 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

30. HR Governance and Strategic Management

Date: 10–11 Aug 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

31. The Executive Management & Leadership Development Programme

Date: 17–18 Aug 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

32. Learning Agility for HR & L&D Professionals

Date: 24–25 Aug 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

33. Leadership Bootcamp for HR Professionals

Date: 31 Aug–1 Sep 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

34. Public Relations in the Oil and Gas Industry

Date: 7–8 Sep 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

35. International Contracting

Date: 14–15 Sep 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

36. Legislation: Understanding the Legislative Process

Date: 21–22 Sep 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications

Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

37. Collaboration Intelligence for Organization Development

Date: 29 Sep 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

38. Building High Performance Board

Date: 5–6 Oct 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

39. Leading with Emotional Intelligence

Date: 12–13 Oct 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

40. Transformational Industrial Relations & Employee Relations

Date: 19–20 Oct 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

41. Facilitating Change through Effective Communications

Date: 26–27 Oct 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
Risk, control, and compliance implications
Strategic alignment and performance management
Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
Case studies and group discussions
Action planning and implementation guidance

42. Risk Champion Masterclass

Date: 2–3 Nov 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

43. Public Governance Best Practices

Date: 9–10 Nov 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

44. Competence Based Board Evaluation

Date: 16–17 Nov 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

45. Corporate Management & Control

Date: 23–24 Nov 2026

Fee: NGN 250,000

Synopsis: This programme provides in-depth knowledge, practical frameworks, and governance-focused insights relevant to senior executives, board members, and professionals. It combines theory, real-world case studies, and practical tools to enhance decision-making, oversight, and organizational performance.

Course Outline:

- Conceptual foundations and regulatory context
- Roles and responsibilities of leadership and governance bodies
- Risk, control, and compliance implications
- Strategic alignment and performance management
- Practical tools, frameworks, and best practices
- Case studies and group discussions
- Action planning and implementation guidance

Advance your career with ACGPN's expert-led training and certifications.

To begin your enrollment process, contact Mr. David at 09027274796. Explore all available courses and learning paths on our website: <https://acgpnigeria.com/>

ACCOUNT No.: 1015120189 | ASS OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PROF OF NIG | ZENITH BANK